

FACT SHEET

Founded Wizards of the Coast, Inc. was founded by a group of young professionals in Renton, Washington, on May 23, 1990. The company incorporated that same year on December 17.

Headquarters Wizards of the Coast is headquartered in the city of Renton, east of Seattle, Washington. Wizards of the Coast also has international offices in Glasgow, United Kingdom; Antwerp, Belgium; and Paris, France.

Key Contacts Peter Adkison, President and CEO
 David Lewis, CFO and Vice President, Administration
 Ellen F. Franklin, Senior Vice President, Product Support
 Rick Arons, Senior Vice President, Magic and Events
 Loren Greenwood, Vice President, Sales and Customer Service
 John Jordan, Vice President, International Business
 Sue McNab, Vice President, Human Resources
 Rich Fukutaki, Vice President, New Brand Development, Licensing
 Charlotte Skeel, Senior Director, Marketing Communications
 Casey Brebberman, Director of Advertising

Employees Wizards of the Coast employs more than 300 people worldwide.

The Company Wizards of the Coast is a privately held company best known for Magic: The Gathering®, a best-selling fantasy and adventure trading card game. Since its release in 1993, over two billion Magic cards have been sold worldwide and an entire market genre has developed around the game. More recently the company has enjoyed success with BattleTech®, a strategic trading card game based on FASA's BattleTech board game. Future releases will include Portal™, an introductory version of Magic: The Gathering, and a card game based on DILBERT™.

Enter keywords you wish to find information about:

[\[Wizards Main Page\]](#) | [\[Top\]](#)