Military League End-of-Season Events

The Military League is proud to offer a variety of end-of-season events to our players. These events are open to Military League members, and can take the form of tournaments (DCI-sanctioned or non-sanctioned) or any other Magic: The Gathering®-related occasion. Non-Military League players and civilians may be invited to participate in these events.

You may register for Military League end-of-season events through the tournament coordinator. There will be no advance registration through Wizards of the Coast, Inc.

- The cost for a Military League end-of-season event will be established by the coordinator of the event (if a cost is involved).
- The Military League will help support tournament play through discounted product and merchandise, prize support kits, and free advertising/posting on the Military League website.
