

Inactive Players Removed from Rankings

Gordon Culp

Inactive DCI members were removed from the rankings as of January 4, 2000.

The DCI players who were removed were DCI Mana Members who were not recorded as participating in a DCI Sanctioned Event in 1999, or did not renew their DCI Mana Membership between September 1st, 1999 and December 1, 1999, have been dropped from the DCI Rankings. Current DCI Legend Members are always considered to be in a renewed status and are included in the rankings. Please note that ratings continue to be calculated for all players regardless of whether they are shown in the rankings. The ratings for inactive players are simply not included in the rankings that are published.

DCI Members can renew their (free) Mana Membership online at events.wizards.com/DCIMember.asp and will be returned to the DCI Rankings within a few days of completing the online renewal. Players should ensure that their address information (especially country information) is accurate so they are included in future ranking based promotions and invitations to events. The DCI offers the online information renewal for players to conveniently ensure that they are included in the rankings correctly based on their geographic information.

Gordon Culp
Organized Play Database Administrator
Wizards of the Coast