What Color Is Winning?

Magic Arcana
 Wednesday, January 30, 2002

If you haven't heard, we're running a feature called "You Make The Card," in which our readers get to vote on all the aspects of a card that will appear in a real expansion set in 2002.

Voting for the card's color has been going on for a week now, and the results may surprise you. As of Tuesday afternoon, blue had a slim lead over green! The totals (in order):

	Blue	1949
	Green	1920
	Black	1486
	White	1433
	Red	1428
	Total	8216

Voting will run through midnight Sunday night. If you haven't voted yet, do so by clicking the You Make The Card icon at the bottom of our front page. Tell your friends to vote as well! Or, discuss it on our boards! Will blue win, or can green edge it out? Or will one of the other three colors make a late run? Find out next Wednesday right here on MagicTheGathering.com!
