The creature type vote has proved very interesting with a tight race at the top. So much so that no single creature type garnered a third of the vote. Thus, per our rules, the top three vote getters will now have a run-off.

The top three creature types (in alphabetical order) are:

- Elemental
- Fungus
- Spike

A rundown of how all the creature types faired will be listed when we announce the run-off winner next week.

Deadline for voting for the run-off will be midnight, Monday, June 3rd.
