The people have spoken and in a close race, artifact edged out white and black.

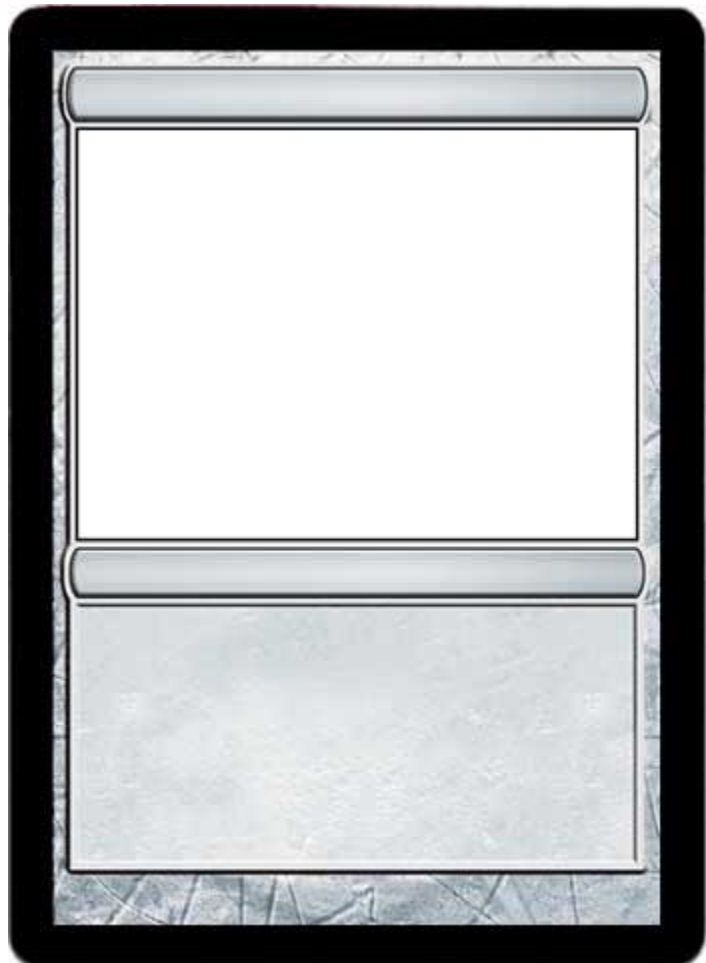

Color	Votes	%
Artifact	2956	26.20%
Black	2431	21.54%
White	2394	21.22%
Blue	1860	16.48%
Red	1643	14.56%
Total	11284	100.00%

The public has been clamoring for more artifacts, so here's your chance to add one to the "Bacon" block. I think this will be an interesting lesson as designing artifacts is very tricky. You want to create a card with flavor, but not one that will usurp the flavor of any particular color. You want to create a card that's powerful, but not one that will go in every deck.

You have your work cut out for you. On to our second question:

Do you want your card to be an artifact creature or an non-creature artifact?

The poll is up now and will end the following Sunday (February 23rd) at midnight.

If you've registered, vote here.
If you have not, register here.
I'm curious to see what you choose.
