The votes are tallied, and Ron Spencer's illustration #3 won hands down, no contest, by a landslide, and easily to boot.

The tally:

Sketch 1	2663	25.02%
Sketch 2	588	5.53%
Sketch 3	7391	69.45%
Total	10642	100.00%

The sketch in frame:

Our last vote really enforces the concept of "You Make The Card." I guarantee that our art team would have never commissioned this card with an "Earth" forest in the art, preferring instead to stick with the block theme of the metallic "Tangle"—but if the people want an "Earth" forest, that's what the people get.

Moving right along...

We've narrowed the name submissions to ten, and now that you know what the art looks like, we can retire "Gazarsgo's Plow" for good. Here are your options, listed alphabetically:

- Aeonglass
- Bowerglass
- Burgeoning Glass
- Crucible of Worlds
- Epoch Timer
- Fallow Filter
- Genesis Timer
- Geological Clock
- Glass of Seasons
- Harvest Clock

This vote will end at midnight the night of September 21st, so vote now! Next week we'll put the icing on this lovely little cake with flavor text submissions.
