A Flowstone Core

Magic Arcana
 Tuesday, August 2, 2005

N*inth Edition* is an opportunity not only for new players to learn Magic, but also for old-schoolers to enjoy its history. You'll find elements from many planes and timelines in this Core Set, from the antiquated elves of Llanowar to the wise counsel of the moonfolk of Kamigawa, from the solemn wastes of Adarkar to Otarian transformation spells.

One such flavor journey is a series of red cards related to flowstone. Flowstone in geology is the accumulation of calcite deposited by centuries of dripping water. Flowstone in Magic is a much more active substance -- magically animated stone that has attacked, afflicted and allied with mages across three planes.

Ninth Edition features three of these flowstone cards, one at each rarity:
