The Orzhov Soldier

Magic Arcana
Thursday, March 23, 2006

Like any organization of hierarchical power, the Orzhov Syndicate has its enforcers. These Orzhov soldiers are there as a show of force as much as for actual face-pounding -- a symbol of the Orzhov's everpresent rule.

As you can see in the style guide image to the right (concept illustration by D. Alexander Gregory), the typical Orzhov soldier has dark and light elements in its armor, and a stylized sun symbol to reflect the Orzhov signet.

There are several cards in Guildpact that show this typical Orzhov enforcer style in the art. Check it out:
