

Three Champions Crowned at Grand Prix

Saturday, June 03, 2006

With Pro Tour-Prague a month in the past, it's time to see how the world of Ravnica-Guildpact-Dissension has changed in the Limited arena. Our globe-trotting coverage staff scattered across the world to bring you reports from Grand Prix in Kuala Lumpur, Torino, and Toronto. Nearly 1,500 players gathered in three locations to tackle the format. Did a dominant archetype come out of Prague? How are the players handling their mana? With all 10 guilds in play, what are the secrets to building a successful sealed deck? Dive in to three full events and nearly 48 hours of continuous coverage from a wild weekend!

Grand Prix-Kuala Lumpur: Kenji Conquers Limited Format

The weekend started in Malaysia, where 316 players journeyed to Kuala Lumpur to challenge their Sealed Deck and Booster Draft skills. Constructed master Kenji Tsumura showed he's now a force to be reckoned with on the Limited side of things as the reigning Player of the Year defeated Osamu Fujita in the finals.

Grand Prix-Torino: Bohny Blasts Ruel in Finals

Three big days of Magic concluded Sunday at Europe's Mega Grand Prix with Switzerland's Nico Bohny defeating 2006 Invitational winner Antoine Ruel in two rapid games for his first Grand Prix victory.

Grand Prix-Toronto: De Rosa Continues Hot Streak

After the robust challenges of dynamic Top 8s in Kuala Lumpur and Torino were extended, Toronto followed through with a star-studded finale. U.S. National Champion Antonino De Rosa defeated Jon Sonne, his teammate from the national team, to earn his second Grand Prix title in as many seasons.
