Incinerate Returns

Magic Arcana
Tuesday, October 10, 2006

Incinerate has been getting a lot of attention thanks to Selecting Tenth Edition announcing its return to Standard next year. In the final sketch vote from that promotion, Zoltan Boros & Gabor Szikszai dominated the poll, taking over 80% of the vote. The final version of their Incinerate is now here in the office, so today we're able to give you a look at the piece's journey from sketch to completed illustration.

The artists even included an animated file to tie the whole thing together. Click here to start it.

Special thanks to Zoltan and Gabor for sharing their process with us. You'll get to see how it looks on actual Tenth Edition cards starting Summer '07. In the meantime, keep watching magicthegathering.com as more Selecting Tenth Edition final pieces arrive here at Wizards of the Coast.
