

Seal of Primordium

Magic Arcana
Wednesday, March 21, 2007

Planar Chaos is a journey through the alternate past. Seal of Primordium, for example, in effect adds a sixth card to the Nemesis cycle of seals. Like much of Planar Chaos, it represents a slightly distorted perspective of the color wheel, yet makes sense in the flavor of its new color as well. In this case, the precedent is clear—Planar Chaos's Seal of Primordium, a "Seal of Naturalize" is a logical companion to the Nemesis Seal of Cleansing, a "Seal of Disenchant."

Christopher Moeller illustrated the original five seals, and was asked to return to paint Seal of Primordium in the same style, as if the card were literally ripped out of the time-stream from an alternate Nemesis. This alternate Nemesis seems recognizable, yet slightly different through the hazy mirror of time. It makes you wonder what the other four alternate seals might have been...

Seal of Primordium art by Christopher Moeller

Note that Seal of Primordium is shown destroying a recognizable artifact from the Time Spiral set. Perhaps the world from which Seal of Primordium comes was plagued by this particular artifact.

Seal of Primordium is blowing up Gauntlet of Power.
